The Daily Sentinel.

THE FRENCH MARSHALS—WHO ARE THEY?

Gen. G. Cluseret does not entertain a very exalted estimate of the genius or capacity of the Generals who intend to command the French Army, in the campaign against Prussia, with whom he says he has served many years. He says:

Marshal Vaillant, exceedingly old, comes on from the Polytechnic School. He made his career in the corps of engineers. Rather a savant than a military leader, he is now of no account.

Marshal Randon, about 75 years old, has no military record. He has been many years Governor of Algeria and Secretary of War. He is more in an administrative capacity than anything else.

Marshal Baraguay d'Hilliers is equally old, and no one can say, more than of Randon, why he was made Marshal of France. When I was at the military school he was the commanding officer, and was very rough. He has been always so with the troops. At Palestro he was brutally stupid, and caused the death of Col. Poltz d'Yvory, of the Third Zouaves, by ordering him to storm a door without waiting for the cannon.

Marshal Forey, who commanded in Mexico, is now paralyzed.

Marshal Canrobert, who was an excellent Colonel of Zouaves, and who made his advancement through the siege of Zaatcha, and the 2d of December, 1851, in Paris, has lost the confidence of the army as commander-in-chief in the Crimea and in Italy. He is only vanity.

Marshal MacMahon is a staff officer. He was very brilliant at the storming of Malakoff, and saved the army at Magenta from the imbecility of the Emperor. The French army has great confidence in him.

Marshal Bazaine comes from the ranks. He was a captain in a very old battalion, the Fourth. He is a man of action, and understands very well how to manage troops on the field. In the Crimea he received important independent commands, and was successful. In Mexico every one here knows his record.

Marshal Le Boeuf, Secretary of War, is, like Vaillant, an old pupil of the Polytechaic School, and served in the arm of artillery. As an artillerist, he enjoys a great name in the French army; but nobody knows anything of him as a commander of troops, which is a specialty almost never acquired by artillerists or engineers.

The most capable of all is Gen. Cousin, called Montauban, Count of Palikao, who commanded in China. An old actor, he was promoted in 1830 second lieutenant, for recompense national. Afterward he served in Africa—where I met him in 1853—as brigadier general commanding Tlemecen. Having entered the Arabian Bureau at his request, I had many opportunities to talk with and see him. He is a distinguished litterateur and joins brain to action. He was the first who perceived that a new system of tactics must be introduced in consequence of the new improvements in arms. He says that the future wars will be wars of positions, and he is right.

Gen. Trochu, who was General Chief of Staff in the Crimea, is probably the best officer of staff in the French army; but being a strong Orleanist, I think Napoleon will never give him an important command.

The other generals are of little importance for the present, being unknown.

The staff corps of France is good, but inferior to that of Prussia on account of its limited instruction. There is no general school of war here as in Berlin, where general officers and chiefs of staff are formed and practically trained.

The light Prussian artillery is also superior; but the French infantry is, I believe, the best I have seen. The German cavalry is superior, but cavalry is altogether a humbug. I have seen it in the Crimea, in Italy, and here. It is all a farce with the new guns There is no more possibility of charging as in old times

From the N. Y. Express, 18th inst.

FACTS, RUMORS, AND INCIDENTS.

The morning paper dispatches from Paris, Berlin, and other points of war like interest, include a report of an engagement near Forbach, on the Rhine, in which the Prussians are said to have lost 3,000 and the French 2,000 men, but there are no particulars. A Prussian force on Saturday penetrated as far as Sierck, for the purpose of destroying the railway, but retired precipitately. At 10 o'clock last night regiments were passing through the streets of Paris on the way to the frontier. Great crowds gathered on the sidewalks cheering the soldiers wildly. All the gardens and public places were crowded, and the excitement—the telegraphers tell us—was intense. M. Thiers is savagely denounced by the multitude. The war spirit is evident in the circumstance that a loan of six monti s' treasury bonds to the amount of 500,000,000 francs was taken up in a few hours. Private subscriptions for the army are opened and money and gif s are flowing in. The Emperor leaves for the field on Wednesday. General Changarnier has been placed in command of the reserves, while General Autemarre has been appointed to the command of the Imperial Guard. It is announced that 250,000 French troops are on the Rhine, ready to cross. On the German side, it is stated that the troops of Saxony, Bavaria, and Wurtemburg are in motion.

King William passed through Cologne on his way to the Rhine on Saturday, and was received with great enthusiasm. In Florence there was a formidable anti French popular demonstration on Saturday, and the current of feeling there is evidently in favor of Prussia.

A Paris official paper contradicts the report that the French troops have been recalled from Rome, and denies that there is any intention to recall them.

MISCEGENATION has been pronounced legal by an Iouiana judge. The Indianapolis Journal says: "Quite a mob gathered in Evansville on the occasion of the marriage of one Vandermede, a Belgian, to a lady of color. The parties married were at once arrested, and finally had to be locked up to escape the fury of the mob The colored preacher who officiated was also arrested and held to answer for a breach of the law. Judge Watson decided that the law punishing the intermarriage of blacks and whites is unconstitutional, and that the marriage is legal."

Mr. James Dawson, who began life in the humble capacity of Speaker of the Mississippi House of Representatives, has risen to be police reporter for a New Orleans paper.

KIRK'S WORK.

The telegram and letter below, will show how Kirk and his men are "obeying orders," in Caswell. Their actions are so well calculated to "preserve peace and order," that we might be astonished at it, if the time to be astonished at any thing had not passed. The telegram is dated

SALISBURY, July 20th.

MR. EDITOR:—On Monday Kirk arrested Judge Kerr, Dr. Rosse, Hon. S. P. Hill, J. C. Williamson, W. D. Bowe, Robert Rosse, Joseph Fowler, Mitchel and James Neal, Jessee Griffith, Dr. Yancy, Thomas Womack, James Mitchel, F. A. Wiley and D. Rainey. Some one hundred and fifty or two hundred were arrested and detained in the Court House from one until five o'clock. W. D. Bowe demanded by what authority they arrested him, unarmed, he refused to go and was struck over the head with guns and dragged off. The arrest of Mr. Wiley was brutal, he was plowing with his coat off and refused to go with them, he was knocked down and put on his own horse his feet tied under the horse's belly and his hands behind his back. Bare back with his coat off he rode into town to Kirk's camp. Judge Kerr is vilely cursed by the sentinel who stands at the window of his prison. Ladies are insulted and with their [illegible] are given to me by a gentleman just from Yanceyville, I feel sure they are true.

The dispatch is signed by a gentleman of reliability.

The following letter sets forth more in detail the brutal manner in which Kirk and his desperadoes are executing the Governor's orders. It is from a gentleman of the highest respectability.

GREENSBORO', N. C., July 19, 1870.

GENTLEMEN:—On Sunday night Kirk camped six miles from Yanceyville with his Alamance prisoners, seven in number. One of these, old man Henderson Scott, is about 65 years of age and for many years a cripple. Yesterday (Monday) was the appointed day of Gen. Leach and Mr. Scott, candidates for Congress, to address the people of Caswell. Kirk, with a portion of his command, about 250 in number, reached Yanceyville about 1½ o'clock, P. M., just as Mr. Scott had commenced his speech filed his men into the enclosure and around the Court House, then filled with people, and then placed his guard at the entrance of the square with orders to allow no one to pass out. He then proceeded to arrest Sheriff Griffith, the Hon. John Kerr, Hon. Samuel P. Hill, Dr. N. M. Rose, J. M. Neal, the former Sheriff, Wiley, and ten others of the most respectable, law loving and law abiding citizens of the county. No cause assigned and no warrant or authority given in any single instance. These men, as they were arrested, were confined in the various rooms of the Court House. The Alamance prisoners having been confined in one of the rooms when the command first arrived. Col. Withers, who, as an officer of the county, occupied a room in the Court House, was forced, by Kirk, to vacate his room for this purpose, and to remove his bed and baggage.

While Leach was speaking a squad of soldiers was sent into the Court room to arrest one of the oldest and most respectable citizens of the county, W. B. Bowe. The officer in command asked him if Bowe was his name. Upon his replying that it was, he was told to consider himself under arrest. By what authority? asked Bowe. In a much louder and more insolent tone, the same thing was repeated, "consider yourself under arrest sir," and, at the same time, the officer put out his hand as if to take him by the collar, when Mr. Bowe put out his hand against the officer's breast, stepped back and desired, again, to know by what authority. The man in command of the squad then raised his pistol to Bowe's face and attempted to fire. The cap exploded but the pistol did not go off. As the hammer fell Col. Pinnix, who was standing by, knocked up the muzzle of the pistol, a large size navy repeater. The soldiers then commenced yelling the cries, "shoot the damn rascal, kill the damned rebs, kill the last damn one of them". These cries were taken up on the outside and for a while it seemed as if all bedlam had broken loose, officers and men, alike, shouting and cursing—the whole command on the outside, with muskets cocked and pointed to the windows, declaring their intention to shoot the first man who appeared at the window. Of course there were no "appearance." Finally the squad returned to the outside having deposited their prisoners in confinement in one of the rooms below. When quiet was restored, though the whole command remained with cocked guns in line on the outside for a considerable time thereafter. The entire crowd of citizens was kept in the Court room until 5 o'clock, with two or three exceptions, who were passed out by the special order of Kirk.—The Coroner and every man who had been in any way concerned with the Coroner's inquest upon the body of Stephens, were made prisoners except the negro jurors.

From a private letter from a gentleman of the highest character, I take this extract, "I saw an officer with his hand on Judge Kerr's back, with his pistol cocked and excited with liquor, and was only prevented from mischief by his superior, in whose custody Mr. Kerr was."

Most of those now arrested are old gray headed citizens, standing as high as the highest, both in the various churches and the community. These facts may be relied on. They come both by letter and from one of ours citizens of undoubted reliability—who was present in Yanceyville and an eye witness of the proceeding—(tho' he was not inside the Court House) and left there last night. The people there as well as here are excited and deeply indignant; but doing all they can to keep cool and to prevent riot and bloodshed. Is it expedient to hold public meetings? or shall we lie still, grin and endure it?

Negroes were used as pilots to the various squads engaged in making the arrests.

We, here in Greensboro', have been warned that we were to furnish our quota to the army of Kirk's prisoners.

HABEAS CORPUS.

This is the most dear and sacred writ known to freemen or the law. The arbitrary arrest of men by despots and tyrants produced the act.

Our English brethren beyond the waters, style this act the second Magna Charta of British liberty, so dear it is to Englishmen that the crownheads of England dare not deny it to the humblest subject of the realm.

The spirit and letter of the habeas corpus act requires that when any person is arrested he shall have a trial forthwith, and without delay, and if his offence be bailable he shall be bailed.

Adolphus Moore, Sid Scott, Henderson Scott, James E. Boyd, John Ireland, Jr., and Albert Murray, have all been arrested by Kirk of Tennessee without warrant or authority of law. Kirk said, when Mr. Moore demanded his authority for his arrest, that he did it by military order.

The Leagues like their prototypes, the Jacobins of France, are said to have their committee of general safety. The jacobins instituted a rigid scrutiny into all the springs of the conspiracy which was attributed to the mountain or other parties.

The Leagues and Ku Klux have had a bloody time. They have disturbed the peace and good order of society; the Governor, as President of the League, has taken a step that must overthrow his party.—Kirk will make a desperate struggle to maintain it. If not written in the body, it is written in the spirit of the constitution, that Leagues and liberty cannot exist together.

Kirk with 300 Leaguers has kidnapped six respectable citizens of Alamance, and marched with them to Caswell county. On Monday, when Gen'l. Leach was addressing the people of Caswell in the Court House, Judge John W. Kerr, Hon. S. P. Hill, Dr. Rose, with several other of the most peaceable and respectable citizens of Caswell, were arrested by Kirk and his men.

The writ of habeas corpus before Judge Pearson hangs fire. The act contemplates a speedy action. We have but little doubt that Judge Pearson will order all the Sheriffs of all the counties, if necessary, to have Kirk's prisoners before him that he may inquire into the cause of their imprisonment.

If Kirk had marched through any two counties of England with no more authority than he has for marching through Alamance and Caswell every gun would have been taken from the rack by the Queen's subjects who value the writ of habeas corpus.

One man is said to have struck terror into the Jacobin Clubs. The united voice of all the people will strike terror into the Holden clubs or leagues. Merlin addressing the people of France said, "Citizens, we must not be afraid to enter the caverns, in spite of the blood and carcases which obstruct the entrance, dare to penetrate and drive out the murderers, villians, and robbers."

It is apparent to all that two secret midnight clubs disturb our peace.

Citizens, we say you must dare to enter into these two midnight caverns despite of the blood, flames and carcases which may obstruct the entrance.

We speak it in the name of the people, these two secret societies, the one composed of white men and the other of negroes, shall be dissolved, and the sacred privileges of the great writ of right shall be respected by all, and neither Holden or Kirk shall make an exception to the universal obedience it shall command.

THE STANDARD'S INQUIRY ANSWERED.

The Standard of yesterday asks us if we advise resistance to Holden's army. We have said that we advised the people against all violence and violent measures; that we advised the people to resist this armed and lawless body of men by all lawful means. We so advise them now. We repeat, that this armed organization is illegal, is in pointed violation of the Constitution and laws of the State and the United States. We have said the Governor and his army and all his aiders and abettors are liable criminally and civilly and that if they take life in their movement, they are guilty of murder. We have advised the people to arm themselves and use all the means the law allows, to break up this lawless organization and to force them to answer for their crimes. We repeat all this now. Do you understand that? If you don't the people do as the Governor will learn to his heart's content before he is done with his job.

"People of North Carolina, will you vote for law and order, or disorder and bloodshed?" Standard of this morning.

We rather think they will vote for law and order, the sacredness of the right of the writ of habeas corpus, and the right of trial by jury, with the accuser brought face to face with the accused; and against Gov. Holden's unlawful standing army with Kirk at its head; against arbitrary arrests and drumhead Courts martial in a time of peace, and against the high taxes that will be laid upon them to pay for it all.

Don't you think they ought to do so, Governor? They do, we assure you.

CRIME AGAINST THE STATE.

By the Constitution of the State the Judges decide what the law is, and when they decide, it is the duty of everybody to submit at once. It is especially the duty of the Governor of the State to execute the law as adjudged by the Judges. He has sworn that he would do so. If he fails, he violates his oath of office, and if he resists the law he is amenable before the criminal Courts of the State and the high Court of impeachment.

Now let us see what the Governor has done? He has organized an armed body of men without the shadow of authority, indeed, in flagrant violation of the Constitution and laws of this State and the United States; he has sent these armed men out among the people and without any process of law or pretence of authority, and for no crime or cause, arrested many of the leading and purest citizens of the State. He has not only done this, but he has defied the Judges of the State, he openly avows that he has instructed his armed men not to recognize the orders and judgments of the Courts; he tells the Chief Justice so. The Chief Justice issues the writ of habeas corpus with the view to the relief of the persons so outraged and deprived of their liberty for no cause whatever, and the Governor tells the Chief Justice that he will not release the prisoners whom his armed bands hold, and gives him to understand that he will resist the process of the Court to the death. This he has done and the public records of the country serve to put the matter beyond question. If this were not so the incredulous might doubt. The Governor has violated his oath of office, he has been guilty of flagrant crime against the State and the people whom he swore he would protect and defend under the Constitution and laws, he has robbed many citizens of their liberty and gloats over the fact and spurns and laughs at the Courts. For all this he is amenable civilly, criminally and before the high Court of impeachment. Does any one doubt that an indignant people will make him account? We do not. All parties of every race and color will demand and require that he shall be tried and punished for such terrible crimes.

But there is a further view of this militia. When he so resists the law, the whole power of the law may be used to stop his lawlessness and crime, and it is the unquestioned duty of the Judges to use that power for this purpose. If the Judges are true to the people and their duty, they will freely execute this power, and they are not fit to be Judges if they fail to do so, if need be. The fact that Holden refuses to obey the law, to recognize the decisions of the Judges when made, shows how corrupt his heart is and what a monster of a man he is. He seems to desire to become infamous, and he is succeeding admirably.

Let the people remember that this man is the head and heart of Radicalism, and that the object of this military movement and the war that is now imminent by reason of his resistance of law, is for no other purpose than to keep him and a few leaders down political hacks in office. This is the purpose; the Standard of yesterday tells the Radical party that they must sustain the military movement; it is necessary to their success. Can any part of the people of this State sustain and endorse so base, dishonorable and fiendish a movement.—We trust all parties will go freely to the polls and deposit their seal of condemnation of Holden & Co., forever. Let all the people do so and save the State from anarchy and bloodshed.

THE RADICAL WHIP.

We trust that every true Republican in the State will read the following extract from an editorial in the Standard of yesterday. It is the impotent effort of the Radical organ of Gov. Holden to whip honest men to support his lawless and infamous military movement. Who is surprised that Republicans and everybody denounce and repudiate it? We would be surprised if they did not. Every good man and patriot without regard to party affiliations, loaths and detests, and condemns from the bottom of his soul the crime of the Governor without a parallel. It would be monstrous if any Republican should not denounce it, they owe it to themselves, their party and their country to denounce it. We do not speak of Radicals; they approve of the Governor and all that he does. They would endorse him if he should deliberately commit murder, but the number of Radicals is small and growing less.

The author of this paragraph seeks willfully to produce a false impression, to wit: that the persons arrested by order of the Governor were arrested on affidavit. This is absolutely false, they were arrested without affidavit or any legal process and many of the persons arrested are of the best and most respectable men in the State. But let every body read this crack of the Radical whip over Republicans. Rave on Standard! Even the Republicans loathe and despise your Governor and his unheard of lawlessness, and thousands of them, black and white, will vote to put him where he will annoy and disgrace the public no more. We know and are glad to know that Republicans do denounce Holden's military movement. We tell the Standard and the Governor that he will hear this oftener than he has done, as the people become more familiar with his military movements and crimes. The whole object is to force the election even at the cost of civil war. This is the plain truth. Read what the Standard says:

"Another word or two.

Some Republicans have either denounced or have not supported the "military movement." This will never, never do.

The very life of the State depends upon the movement. Every device the civil law could furnish has been tried—but tried without effect.

Among all those who have been arrested and sworn to as participating in these outrages, not one has been punished—not one is now to-day in the quarries of the Penitentiary, not one has danced the dance of death, upon the slippery surface of nothing.

Then the civil law has proved itself powerless, and nothing remains to give us protection for the future, and give us justice for the past, but the strong arm, the candid judgment, and the quick punishment of the military law."

A CARD.

Fellow Citizens, of the 7th Congressional District of North Carolina: The Hon. Plato Durham, Conservative candidate for Congress, having been assured by prominent members of the party in Washington City, that no Conservative member elect to the next Congress would be allowed to take his seat unless he could take the test oath or had had his disabilities removed, and being unable to take the test oath, has withdrawn his name from before the people.

His reason for doing so is that in case he should be elected he would be refused his seat and his Republican rival, the present member from the District, would be continued in office two years longer. This would amount to forcing upon you a R presentative not the choice of the majority and would also be depriving the Conservative party of the county of a vote in Congress during the two years just preceding what bids fair to be an exciting and critical Presidential campaign.

Mr. Durham's withdrawal, although announced as soon as he was advised he would be refused his seat in Congress, comes too late to allow another Convention to be held before the election. On this account the Executive Committee of the District have placed my name upon the Conservative ticket as a candidate for member of the House of Representatives in the next Congress. I have believed it to be my duty to accept the nomination so generously tendered me, without any aspiration for the position on my part; and as the time is too short to allow anything like a personal canvass, I am induced to adopt this form of address in order that my position and principles may be fully understood. At the request of some friends who desired me to take the seat in the House of Representatives of our dear Legislature, to which I was elected by the good people of my county, and from which I was barred by the effect of the Howard Amendment, I applied to Congress to remove my disabilities. Neither in making that application nor since have I made any pledges or promise not made by every registered voter in North Carolina. I agreed to support the Constitution and laws, and on that Congress relieved me. So that should I be elected there is nothing to prevent my taking my seat.

It is useless to recapitulate the doctrines of the Conservative party, it is enough to say that I belong to that party, that I endorse the two able addresses lately published all over the State, the one by our members of the State Legislature, and the other by the Hon. Wm. Shipp. This district is largely Conservative; Radicalism never was very popular here and only kept alive by the eager exertions of a few interested office holders who duped the people for their own advancement, is fast dying.

The symptoms of a rupture in the party at Washington have extended to our mountains and valleys and one manly, vigorous effort of the good men here will place this district where it will ever afterwards remain, in the front rank of the Conservative districts of the State and nation. It is too true to argue about that the governing power is responsible for the manner in which the government is administered.

It follows then, as the country is ruled by a Radical President and Cabinet, urged and strengthened by a Radical Congress, that it is to Radicalism that North Carolina owes her present degradation and bankruptcy. Although much of our trouble has been caused by the action of a Radical Legislature, yet no one can doubt that that Legislature has been guided by the maxims and controlled by the leaders of the Radicals of the North. Leaving behind the dead issues of the war, we owe it to Radicalism,

1st. That wherein our taxes in 1860 and previously were readily paid because the amount was small, they are now collected with great difficulty because of the enormous increase and of our greatly reduced ability to pay.

2nd. That a vast and intricate system of national taxation has been forced upon us, so that no implement of trade, no article of merchandize, no household utensil, no clothing, no furniture, the exercise of no profession or calling is untaxed, and a swarm of greedy and inquisitive officials let loose upon us.

3rd. That our bonds, which in 1860 were at and above par, are now a drug on the market and a disgrace to our State.

4th. That the money wrung from our people has been squandered in speculation and bribery, and the credit of the State has been utterly ruined.

5th. That our University, the nursery of Statesmen and the pride of our people, has been turned into a primary school.

6th. That life and property are no longer safe from the violence of men seeking gain or plotting revenge under the cover of secret oath-bound organizations.

7th. That capital and immigration are discouraged from coming here to develope our resources.

8th. That the State is even now being overrun by a horde of undisciplined soldiers, under the command of officers alien to the State and obnoxious to the people, and this whole proceeding is in utter defiance of the law, and without warrant of necessity.

This state of things cannot remain stationary. It is a State of revolution and must result as revolutions always do in financial distress, in scarcity of food, in mobs and in fierce attempts of the wronged to right themselves by violence. To avert these consequences the Conservative party which is pledged to peaceful government, to light, and equal taxation, and to reform, must triumph by the will of the people (expressed through the ballot box) in the councils of the General Government. That it may so triumph every District must be carried that can be carried and a Conservative majority secured in the next Congress. To that end I respectfully ask your votes and your support in the coming election. My well known course heretofore in regard to internal improvements may be sufficient assurance that if elected, no effort shall be spared on my part to develop the material interests of Western North Carolina, particularly if any thing can be done by way of appropriation by Congress in favor of our Rail Road interests.

J. C. HARPER.

FEELING OF AUSTRIAN OFFICIALS IN WASHINGTON.—The Washington correspondent of the New York Post telegraphs on Saturday, that the attaches of the Austrian legation do not conceal their satisfaction with the course of France, and do not hesitate to express their sympathies with that power. They do not believe it possible for Austria to remain neutral during the contest, but think she will be forced to join France and aid in trying to humiliate and wrest away from Prussia part of her vast domain.

War upon the dogs has opened in Newbern. We don't intend to connect this fact with the begira of Holden's "melish" from that city to Raleigh, yesterday.

YOUNG, HEALTHY, VIGOROUS AND CONDUCTED BY A WISE, PRUDENT, AND ECONOMICAL, BOARD OF DIRECTORS UPON A

NEW SYSTEM,

devised by its talented and distinguished Actuary CHAS. S. MORGAN, which must make it the leading Company in America, for persons in and all who appreciate and demand the most UNQUESTIONABLE SECURITY, at rates in most cases, cons derably lower than those of the leading Mutual Cash Companies.

The Excelsior issues Policies on all the plans of Mutual or Stock Companies, extending to policy privileged to live and travel where they please in any healthy part of the world, they participate in the profits, are allowed 30 days grace for payment of renewal of premium, a cash surrender value of policy, and a privilege which has never been offered by any other Company, that of converting Policies into after the payment of 5 or more annual premiums.

☞ Hitherto, I have been restricted in the very popular Company which I had the honor to represent to Stock rates alone, which most of the Mutual, and mixed Companies have adopted. This disadvantage, together with the multiplication of many new Companies, in this state the Excelsior induced me to accept the management of that Company, whose plan combines all the popular features of other Companies, represented in this State, without an exception, and the additional privilege of converting policies, which the holder can not afford to keep up, or wishes to discontinue, because of the death of those for whose benefit the policy was secured, into an Annuity Bond which provides an income in cash through life, or for a series of years as preferred.

Circulars giving full explanations and any other information, will be cheerfully furnished.

The most liberal arrangements, will be made with first class solicitors, to push the Excelsior forward in the Old North State, to that position which her low rates and most ample security entitle her to occupy.

CONGRESSIONAL SPEAKING.

Messrs. Gilliam and Rogers will address the people of the district at the following times and places:

Albright's, Chatham county, July 21.
Matthews', Chatham county, " 22.
Hickory Mountain, Chatham co., July 23.
Louisburg, Franklin county, July 26.
Nashville, Nash county, July 28.
Warrenton, Warren county, July 30.

The candidates will be in Granville county on the 1st, 2d and 3rd of August, the places for each day hereafter to be designated.

GET YOUR TICKETS READY!

Conservatives of Wake, remember that the names of your township's candidates must be on your tickets. It is necessary therefore, for each township to send in a fairly written list of their township candidates, that they may be printed in time. Send the list to George H. Snow, Esq., Chairman of the County Executive Committee, with the number you want, and he will attend to having them printed on the Congressional and County ticket. Don't neglect a day, but attend to it at once.

Col. L. C. Edwards Conservative candidate for the Senate, will address the people of Person County at Holloway's on the 27th inst., at Woodsdale on the 28th, and at Roxboro on the 30th.

Continued Again.—The Habeas Corpus case was argued before His Honor, Chief Justice Pearson again to-day, by B. F. Moor, Esq. for the petitioners and Mr. Badger for the Executive. These addresses occupied the time up to 1 o'clock, when the matter was continued for further hearing to morrow, when ex Gov. Bragg will make an appeal in favor of law and liberty.

In the meantime the Governor's unlawful mob continues to make arrests and maltreat their prisoners, and insult and frighten women and children. Well, "when things come to the worst they are certain to mend," is the old adage and, in the present contingency, affords some consolation.

We hope, hereafter, to be able to lay the substance of the arguments of Counsel in this case, before our readers; we are not able to do so at present.

Ballot Box. Whereas a number of boys from 16 to 20 years of age, and persons who have not resided in the county the necessary time prescribed by law, have registered and are still registering and have expressed their determination to vote at the election, this is to notify all good people having any information of such, to furnish their names to the Solicitor of the District in order that they may be prosecuted as the law directs.

By request of the County Executive Committee.

New Publication.—We have received from Mr. Charles C. Chatfield, publisher, New Haven, Conn., through Mr. Alfred Williams, Bookseller of this city, by whom the work is for sale, a book of 280 pages entitled, "The American Colleges and the American Public," by Noah Porter, Professor in Yale College.

A glance through its pages shows that it treats of the studies, text books, common life, class system, relaxation &c. of Colleges, but we have not had time to give it sufficient attention to criticise the views the author takes of his subject.

A Bottle of Bitters.—We have as a sample, from Mr. J. R. H. Carmer, of the new Drug Store, a bottle of Boggs German Tonic Bitters, put up and sold by D. Wade & Co., Baltimore, and by Mr. Carmer in this city. The bitters are said to be a good prescription for general debility and loss of appetite, and several stomachic derangements, and is said by those who have tried it, to be pleasant and palatable. As we are not much debilitated and have a good appetite, we will lay aside our bottle until we need something of the sort, in the meantime, any one needing any thing of the sort may know where to find it.

Forward.—Mr. M. T. H. Peoples, has laid on our table a full size cotton boll, from the farm of Mr. Isaac M. Hutchings, four miles from the city. Only a short time since, we were chronicling "first blooms," now we have the boll nearly ready to open out its snowy wealth to the tiller.

If you have broken china and crockery, don't fail to get some of that excellent Italian Cement, manufactured by Mr. A. C. Fuller. This is no humbug, but comes up fully to all what is claim for it.

If you enjoy a good chew of tobacco after dinner you ought to go to Pink C. Hardie's and get some of that splendid Michigan fine cut.

In fact Pink keeps everything that one would expect to find in a well furnished and first class establishment.

Greensboro' Female College.—We learn from the Episcopal Methodist that the necessary amount for rebuilding Greensboro Female College has been pledged, and that a building Committee has been appointed and the work ordered to go forward as soon as the money is paid in.

Mr. Phillips spoke at Danbury, in Stokes county, on the 7th inst. He said "the principles of the Republican party are immortal; they will never die." We think it probable the people of North Carolina would rather they would die, and will help to kill them, if they are to be carried out hereafter as they have been heretofore in this State.

NEGRO MILITIA.

Two companies of negro militia, or State troops, arrived here last night from New bern, and we understand others are to come to night. These negroes are encamped at the old Baptist Grove, and squads of them have been parading the streets of the city to day, for the purpose of making a moral impression, we presume, on the public mind. We understand these negro troops were brought up in answer to a hasty telegram from the Governor, sent night before last.

People of North Carolina, you have got to pay for all this useless and unlawful military parade and nonsense. What do you think of it? Are you going to sit still on the day of election and let this accursed oppression be continued upon you?

Remember, that the taxes of this year are laid already, and all this expense is not provided for yet; that will have to come on you next year, besides thousands and tens of thousands of deficiency for this year.

Do you feel like standing it? If not, go to the polls and vote against it.

For the Sentinel.

Graham, July 18, 1870.

Editor Sentinel—Dear Sir: Allow me a short space in your columns, that I may answer and correct some statements made therein a few days ago by some person signing himself "Truth." The statements were: That I had formerly belonged to the League and could tell all about it if I chose; that I was, two years ago, the leader of the Republican party in this county and was now thrown overboard by that party, and that I had hitherto acted as if I were afraid of the Hardees and Albrights.

I will say in reply, that I have never belonged to the League and have never attended one of its meetings and consequently know nothing, whatever, of its secrets; that I have never flattered myself, that I was the leader of the Republican party in this county at any time, though at the time mentioned I was acting with it and used all my influence in its behalf. I honestly believed then that I was doing right, but if I made no mistake in the course of forty years voting, I should flatter myself that I had been wiser and more fortunate than most men who had lived before me; that I have been thrown overboard by the Radical party is a mistake of "Truth;" it is true that I was formerly postmaster at this place and that I have been lately removed, for what reasons I never knew, unless the pitiful salary annexed to the office induced one of the five most respectable men in the county," the present P. M., to make representations against me of similar character to those which he has been constantly making to the Governor, and by reason of which our county has been declared to be in a state of insurrection. As to fear of any man I have never known the feeling, and those who know me best, will vouch for what I say. At the commencement of the war I was what I had always been, a Democrat. I opposed secession and was one of the very few who voted for Douglass. I voted for him under the honest conviction that I was doing all in my power to avert secession and its consequences. Since the war I have supported by my vote and also by whatever influence I had, all reconstruction acts and measures, believing it the best course to secure that peace and quiet which the South so much needed. Thus far I voted with the Republican party and no further. I have never been a Radical and hope never to be such. I became convinced sometime since, that all the fair promises made by the leaders of the Radical party to poor men, &c., were idle words which they would recant as soon as occasion demanded or their own selfish ends could be furthered thereby. And to day I have seen full confirmation of my fears. I have witnessed that which I had hoped never in my life to see, viz: martial law proclaimed and enforced in this county; men arrested and dragged from their homes in the most brutal and insulting manner. Men of the first respectability, over whom not a shadow of suspicion of disloyalty ever rested. Guards stationed at the entrance of every street and people forbidden to pass in or out of the town. Men going about their daily business and even ladies halted uncerimoniously wherever they chanced to be and commanded peremptorily to remain where they were until released.

Men of North Carolina, rouse yourselves to your duty. This is a last desperate resort of the Radical party to continue its hold over you. They hope by exercising this terrorism over the free people of the State to control the coming elections.—There is but one remedy for us—let every man who dares to call himself a free man, go to the polls and vote that party to the oblivion which it so richly merits; vote against all carpet baggers, both foreign and domestic, against apologists for the party or those emisted under the name and bearing the banner of the Republican party and denouncing the acts and corruption of the party to which they profess to belong.—Beware! they are double headed, with a face both ways. Beware of them!

J. B. McMURRAY.

Tribute of Respect.

At a meeting of the employees of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad, held in Raleigh July 17th, 1870, the following resolutions were unanimously adopted.

Whereas, by the act of an all-wise Providence, we are called upon to mourn the untimely death of our much esteemed friend, Henry C. Patterson, who departed this life suddenly on the 12th of July, 1870, therefore be it

Resolved, That to the relations of the deceased, and to the bereaved and disconsolate widow, we tender our heartfelt sympathies in her hour of sorrow, and for consolation, commend her to Him who is the giver of all good, and may she meet that loved one in that spiritual building, where loved ones know no parting.

Resolved, That the thanks of the employees are due and are hereby tendered to the officers of the Raleigh and Gaston Railroad Company for their kindness in granting us a special train from Raleigh to Franklinton, and return, to attend the funeral of our lamented friend, Henry C. Patterson.

Resolved, That a copy of these Resolutions be presented to the family of the deceased and that a copy be sent to the Raleigh Sentinel, and to the Standard for publication.

THE EQUITABLE

HAS BECOME THE LEADING COMPANY OF THE WORLD.

The New Business (sum assured), for the year 1869, exceeded that of the second company in rank by more than THIRTEEN MILLION DOLLARS.

In 1860 it was the 9th Company in new business for the year; in 1861 it was the 8th; in 1862 and 1863, the 7th; in 1864 and 1865 the 6th; in 1866, the 4th; in 1867, the 3d; in 1868, the 2nd; in 1869 it was the FIRST.

The insuring public should not allow itself to be deceived with regard to the term "Annual Dividends." Many companies using this expression mean that their dividends are "annual" AFTER THEY ONCE BEGIN TO PAY THEM AT ALL; but they DO NOT BEGIN TO PAY until the settlement of the third, fourth, or fifth premium.

One Hundred Dollars paid in dividends at the end of one year, and each year thereafter, equals FOUR HUNDRED AND THIRTY SIX DOLLARS paid at the end of FOUR YEARS, interest at SIX per cent.

Applications for Assurance may be made to any of the Society Agents throughout the country, or in person or by letter to the General Agents.

A NEW DISCOVERY!!

PHALON'S

"VITALIA;"

OR,

Salvation for the Hair.

CLEAR AS WATER!
WITHOUT SEDIMENT!!
OPEN TO THE LIGHT!!!

For Restoring to Gray Hair its Original Color.

PHALON'S "VITALIA" differs utterly from all the hair coloring preparations heretofore used. It is limpid, sweet smelling, precipitates no muddy or slimy matter, requires no shaking, imparts no stain to the skin. Hold it to the light and it is clear and cloudless. It leaves no mark on the scalp; yet it reproduces in gray hair the natural color that time or sickness may have bleached out of it.

is for one sole purpose, that of reproducing, with absolute certainty, the natural color of the hair. It is not intended as a daily dressing, nor for removing scurf or dandruff; nor for curing baldness; nor for stimulating the growth of the hair.—These objects may be accomplished after the color has been fixed with the Vitalia, by Phalon's Chemical Hair Invigorator.

THE VITALIA is a harmless and unequaled preparation for the reproduction of the original hue of gray hair, and nothing else. This is accomplished in from two to ten applications, according to the depth of shade required. Sold by all druggists.

READ AND PONDER.

I never read a dozen pages of medicine in all my life, and of course know nothing about it. But, as I said before, Dr. Hammond is my authority for saying, that any man who smokes such good Cigars, or chews such good Tobacco, as you can find only at PINCK C HARDIE'S, need have no fear of declining health. But will, on the contrary, improve in health and increase in flesh so long as he continues to use them.

Indeed the authority of such distinguished Physicians as Dr. Hammond is not needed to convince you that I only assert what can be substantiated, by contrasting our esteemed fellow citizens, Jno. C. Palmer and Jas. M. Towles "who never smoke," with such men as my friends Creech on the corner, Maj Tucker just opposite, Harvey Moore, of the PENTHOUSE, and Simon Hayes, the Livery Stable man, and a host of others I could name, who use my Cigars and Tobacco.

Suffer a word of exhortation; come and see me. Try my goods, and if I don't suit you go further and fare worse.

THE AMERICAN COMBINATION
Button Hole & Sewing Machine

Has been honored with the Highest award in premiums and diplomas wherever entered for competition at fairs and exhibitions held during the past season.

THE SIMPLICITY, EASE AND CERTAINTY with which this machine Operates as well as the uniform excellence of its work, throughout the entire range of sewing, in

Stitching, Hemming, Felling, Tucking, Cording, Braiding Quilting, Gathering & Sewing on, Overseaming, Embroidering on the Edge, and its Beautiful Button-Hole and Eyelet Hole Work,

Place it unquestionably far in advance of any other similar invention

It is also the CHEAPEST intrinsically, as well as the BEST, since it is really TWO MACHINES combined in one, (by a simple and beautiful mechanical arrangement never before accomplished by human ingenuity,) making either the Lock Stitch or Button-Hole Stitch, as occasion may require. It is, at the same time, simple in construction, comparatively speaking, easily understood, and in a word, it combines with these ADVANTAGES, EXCLUSIVELY ITS OWN, THE MOST DESIRABLE QUALITIES OF ALL OTHERS.

The public are invited to examine this remarkable machine at Mrs TOWLES' Boarding House, (Mrs. Thompson's old stand,) Fayetteville Street, and at Watson's Photographic Gallery.

No accidents have ever happened with it.

Protected by Copy right for 28 years from May 8th 1868.

The above Fluid has been in constant use for upwards of three years, and has sustained its unrivalled reputation, as a brilliant, non-explosive illuminating agent, though subjected to the severest tests. Being universally conceded to be superior to Kerosene or Coal Oil. It makes a better light and more of it, than any other illuminating compound. Soft, clear, steady and non-injurious to the eyes. All that is asked is, a fair and impartial trial.

Among the numerous testimonials received read the following:

PHILADELPHIA, March 12th, 1869.

The undersigned, having witnessed the experiments of Messrs. Hale & Co., with their Combination Burning Fluid, take pleasure in commending it to the public. The various tests to which the Fluid was subjected, was in the highest degree satisfactory. We have no hesitation in pronouncing it to be a safe and brilliant illuminating agent. Its chemicals added to its other good qualities, should insure its introduction into every family in the country, where Kerosene Oil is used.

POLICIES VALUABLE IN LIFE, AS WELL AS AT DEATH!!

THE BROOKLYN LIFE IS THE ONLY COMPANY IN AMERICA, WHICH GUARANTEES

DEFINITE CASH SURRENDER VALUES,

IN CASE A POLICY IS FORFEITED FOR NON-PAYMENT OF PREMIUM.

The BROOKLYN LIFE enjoys the highest reputation for judgment of investment, economy of management, and skill and care in the selection of risks,—upon which elements of administration the security of a Life Insurance Corporation depends.

The laws of New York compel Companies in that State to calculate the Cash value of their Policies, each and every year, and a certain legal standard of reserve and accumulation must be held by the Companies to meet all their liabilities.

Insurers in looking around for Companies in which to insure, should carefully seek for this important safeguard. It will be found in the BROOKLYN LIFE.
